MICHAEL ROY'S BUSINESS IS FOLDING AND YOU'LL WANT TO WATCH

Interactive strolling origami and visual artist, Michael Roy Baldrige and his nimble fingers will be appearing at _____ . He brings origami into the new millennium, combining classic Japanese style origami with the latest in high tech folding; transforming single, flat squares of paper into 3D forms of animals, flowers, sea life, birds, and decorative objects. Michael Roy's repertoire of intricate and elegant sculptures includes some of the best origami from the imaginative minds of contemporary engineers, scientists, and artists. One sheet of paper. No cuts. No tears. No glue. With dexterity, quick wit, and knowledge of origami history and technique, he will share the technology and art that is origami. And you could go home with a cherished keepsake.
